Hi! I'm Wendy Conrad, Florida native, certified Chief Happiness Officer, and graduate of Florida Atlantic University earning a Bachelor's Degree (Cum Laude) in Elementary Education. Currently a member of the Small Business Advisory Council of Palm Beach North Chamber of Commerce and board member of FPRA, I founded Your Happy Workplace in 2019.

In the 20+ years prior to founding Your Happy Workplace, I worked for a dozen small businesses and now use my experience to help other organizations build inspiring, people-centric work cultures by design rather than default. Using a holistic approach, I help business leaders create custom work cultures that attract and retain the talented humans to their team.
